DROWNING ACCIDENT.

William Perley, Jr., Aged 9, Slipped into Water While Fishing.

Bellows Falls, June 26.-William F. Perley, jr., nine years old, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Perley of this mr. and Mrs. William F. Perley of this place, was drowned in the Saxtons river near the Basin farm Monday. The only one near at the time of the accident was Caibert Allen, a playmate about the same age, who ran to the farmhouse nearby for help, but it was too late to revive the boy when he was taken from Monday. The only one near at the time of the accident was Caibert Allen, a playmate about the same age, who ran to the farmhouse cracks, and thrush. William Croto, Aged 19, Surprised Parents When He Walked into Home.

Burlington, June 26.-William Croto aged 19, the first Burlington boy to come back from France wounded, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Croto, when he walked into the home Monday, as they supposed him to be across the water. He has a wound in the jaw, where a piece of shrapnel nearly took his life, and he was also gassed, necessitating hospital treatment. It was in March the injury and he remained in a hospital in France until he had somewhat re-covered, when he was shipped on a re-turning transport and reached Cape May,

N. J., on May 30. Lest he alarm his family he had let them think he was still abroad, but as chairs, couch, rockers, several small ta-soon as he was allowed to make the bles, several bureaus, 2 with large mirsoon as he was allowed to make the be necessary for a silver plate to be placed in his jaw to replace the part stovepipe and elbows, a lot of books, down away, but Croto expects to able before long to go back and take up his duties at the front. He has two weeks' leave, which he will spend with his parents. Three other members of the family are in service.

Perfect Womanhood.

Perfect womanhood depends on perfect health. Beauty and a good disposition both vanish before pain and suffering. A great menace to a woman's happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some functional derangement which soon de-velops headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues." For such suffering, women find help in that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg-etable Compound, which for three generations has been restoring health to women of America.-Adv.

Get from E. A. Drown & Co., or at any good drug store to-day, a package of Parisian sage—it doesn't cost much and there's nothing else you could use that's so simple, safe and effective.

You will surely be delighted with the first application. Your hair will seem much more abundant and radiant with life and beauty—all itching ceases and your scalp feels cool and comfortable. Parisian sage is in great demand by discriminating women because it is delicately perfumed, does not color or streak the hair, and keeps it lustrous, soft and fluffy.

Be sure you get the genuine Parisian sage (Giroux's) for this is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or nothing to pay.—Adv.
